Village Office Deputies Appointment
Amendment to B. S. O 148- Para 9- published

COPY OF REFERENCE FROM REVENUE DEPARTMENT, BOARD OF REVENUE, MADRAS, A.2403/51-1 dated 3-7-51

SUB: VILLAGE OFFICERS - Deputies - Appointment - Departure from the principles in B.S.O.148 (9) on Compassionate grounds - Amendments to B.S.O. Suggestion.

READ: G.O.No.590, Rev., dated 13-3-51.

According to the instructions issued in B.S.O.148-9 it is not necessary to remove a deputy once appointed when the minor is registered in succession to another unless sufficient proof is adduced to show that the new minor's interests would really suffer by the continuance in office of the same Deputy. In the case dealt with in the G.O. cited above, the Board found that there was no satisfactory evidence to show that the existing Deputy was neither hostile or indifferent to the interests of the newly registered minor and that the Collector's order allowing him to continue as the Deputy to the new minor was in consonance with the spirit of the instructions issued in the B.S.O. It therefore in its L.Dis.A.5661/49 dated 9.6.50 confirmed the Collector's order and rejected the petition from Rajapa Reddi against it. On a petition from Sri Rajapa Reddi, the Government in their order cited above have set aside the orders of the Board for the reasons that the proposed deputy was the new minor's own father, that he had been in miserable circumstances after his reverses in Hyderabad and that the existing deputy has had a long run for his money. They have made a departure from the principles contained in the B.S.O. in this case as a "Special Case". It appears to the Board that the Government have taken a sympathetic view of the petitioner's case though it may be in violation of the instructions in the B.S.O.148(9). The Board requests orders if under similar circumstances the Revenue Divisional Officer, the Collector and the Board may also make a similar departure from the instructions in B.S.O.148(9) on compassionate grounds. If the Government agree, necessary amendment to the B.S.O. will be submitted.
